

The National Center for the Study of Civil Rights and African-American Culture at Alabama State University presents

THE BLACK FILM

FESTIVAL

Eleven Years of Celebrating the African-American Spirit

Friday, August 23, 2013

6 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

FREE ADMISSION!

J. Garrick Hardy Student Center Theater
at Alabama State University

Viewing and Discussion of

FunkJazz Kafé:
The Diary of a Decade
(The Story of a Movement)

The Bama State Collegians
(ASUs Legendary Jazz Ensemble)

Saturday, August 24, 2013

9 a.m. – 11:45 p.m.

The Capri Theatre
1045 East Fairview Avenue
Montgomery, Alabama 36106
334-262-4858

FREE REFRESHMENTS

(popcorn and coke) to first 100 guests

A note from the Sponsor: Films presented at the Black Film Festival represent the vision and creativity of the individuals who produced them and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Center for the Study of Civil Rights and African-American Culture.

9 a.m. - 10:25 a.m. The Jackie Robinson Story (Not rated) Starring Jackie Robinson in the title role, this 1950 biopic traces Robinson's career in the Negro Leagues and his historic debut as the first black Major League Baseball player of the 20th Century.

10:30 a.m. - 12:05 p.m. Beasts of the Southern Wild (PG-13) The story of a heroic six-year-old girl and her quest to find her mother amid a storm that threatens her town's existence. Quvenzhané Wallis' became the youngest nominee for Best Actress in a Leading Role in Academy Awards history for her stellar performance as Hushpuppy.

12:10 p.m. - 2:25 p.m. 42 (PG-13) Jackie Robinson's number 42 jersey is as revered today as it was reviled in 1946 when Branch Rickey recruited him to break Major League Baseball's color line with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

2:30 p.m. - 5:20 p.m. Django Unchained (R) With the assistance of a German bounty hunter, a former slave sets out to rescue his wife from a cruel plantation owner. A Quentin Tarantino film starring Jamie Foxx, Christoph Waltz, Leonardo DiCaprio, Kerry Washington and Samuel L. Jackson. Post-film discussion led by Dr. Howard Robinson II, archivist, Alabama State University.

5:25 p.m. - 7:45 p.m. FunkJazz Kafé: The Diary of a Decade (The Story of a Movement) (Not rated) A riveting documentary that explores the evolution of Atlanta's FunkJazz Kafé Arts and Music Festival from the late 1980s to the early 2000s, while examining the roots of soul music and its challenges within the mainstream music industry. Special appearances by Erykah Badu, Cee Lo Green, Chuck D, Cornel West and more. Post-film discussion led by Jason Orr, the film's producer, writer and director.

7:45 p.m. - 8:55 p.m. Soul Food Junkies (Not rated) Byron Hurt explores the soul food tradition in the black family, related health issues and the cultural politics of food in this insightful documentary. Post-film discussion led by Isaiah Sankey, registered nurse practitioner and owner of Isaiah's Restaurant.

9 p.m. - 11:45 p.m. Django Unchained (R)

For more information, call 334-229-4824 or 334-229-4106.