

Booked on Heritage

August 13, 2010
12:00 p.m - 1:30 p.m.

The National Center for the Study of Civil Rights and African-American Culture
at Alabama State University
1345 Carter Hill Road
Montgomery, Alabama

(334) 229-4824

This will be an entertaining and educational presentation directed to children from 4 to 12 years old. This year's presenters are experienced professional writers and storytellers with over 14 books in print and over 30 years of storytelling experience.

Ms. Minnie Stringer - Recipient of The National Storytelling Networks 1997 Southeast Regional service award. She has been telling stories to elementary school children for over Thirty years and regals the audience with her tales from Grandmas porch.

C.L. Threatt - Writer, publisher and motivational speaker is entertaining and an enlightening speaker. As a full-time children's motivational speaker and native of Alabama with nine books in print and thousands sold, he focuses his presentation on his latest book "Different, But the Same." This book makes children excited about who they are and whey they are wonderful .

Emmett Woods - Author of the "Black Frog." With the recent excitement of the first Black animated movie by Disney (The Princess and the Frog) increased interest in his book has emerged. Mr. Woods will share his wonderful experience of promoting the Black Frog.

The National Center for the Study of Civil Rights and African-American Culture at Alabama State University
1345 Carter Hill Road
Montgomery, AL 36106
www.lib.alasu.edu
(334) 229-4824 or (334) 229-4106