

Presented by The National Center for the Study of Civil Rights and African-American Culture at Alabama State University

Booked on Heritage

Inspired by the Movement for the Children of the Dream

Theme – From Africa to Alabama
Host – Joseph D. Trimble, Author and Storyteller

Friday, June 14, 2013 | 9-10:30 a.m.
The National Center
1345 Carter Hill Road
Montgomery, Alabama
FREE ADMISSION!

– FEATURING STORYTELLING BY –

Frank Hardy
and his dancers

Shanessa Sweeney
Off-Broadway Actress
ASU alumna (class of 2000)
Theatre Department

For more information, call
334-229-4824 or 334-229-4106.

ALABAMA STATE UNIVERSITY

Booked on Heritage is a unique opportunity for children ages 4-10 to learn about African-American history and culture through the African tradition of storytelling.

Booked on Heritage is a fun-filled literacy experience that promotes the development of an appreciation for books, art and storytelling.

Booked on Heritage appeals not only to children, but also to the parents, educators and literacy advocates who play important roles in helping to nurture children's learning skills.

Booked on Heritage encourages aspiring storytellers, writers and artists of all ages to become keepers of the culture.

Booked on Heritage is an exciting, interactive adventure created by ASU's National Center to advance its commitment to preserve the spirit and legacy of the leaders, foot soldiers and unsung heroes of the modern civil rights movement.

