CELEBRATE NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK
APRIL 13-19, 2015
UNLIMITED POSSIBILITIES @ YOUR LIBRARY

Schedule of Events

MONDAY, APRIL 13
NLW Kick-off Event
10-11 a.m.
Lecture Hall on the 1st floor
Shumerria Harris, a graduate of Alabama
State University, will read her children’s book, “Because You’re Red”, and will sell autographed copies of it.

TUESDAY, APRIL 14
Coffee and Doughnuts
9 a.m.-3 p.m.
Art Gallery
Provided by The Library Relations Team for library staff.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16
Brown Bag Discussion:
Developing Healthy Relationships
11 a.m.-noon
Lecture Hall on the 1st floor.

Performance by Eclectic Dance Company
11:30 a.m.
Library’s lobby on the 1st floor.

Daily Events

APRIL 13-17
Show Book Talks (1st floor)
Show Book Talks on the monitor of the 5th floor and in the iCafe on the 1st floor.

Student Posters
Posters created by students in the Art Department will be displayed in the library lobby on the 1st floor.

Book Giveaways

Entire Month of April 2015 Events

Career Display
Come see our display on career information on the 1st floor. This information will be useful to students who are planning their careers.

Volunteer Opportunities
Check out our display on local volunteer opportunities on 1st floor. This information will be useful to students who must complete community service hours

For more information, contact the Levi Watkins Learning Center at 334-229-4106 or visit the website at www.lib.alasu.edu.