Levi Watkins Learning Center
Policy Overview

The Levi Watkins Learning Center (LWLC) allows Alabama State University (ASU) students, administrators, organizations, faculty and staff, the use of spaces within the library. The LWLC provides access to space for uses consistent with the Library’s mission, particularly the LWLC’s responsibility to provide learning opportunities, research, scholarship and cultural activities.

Reservations
All reservations pertaining to the Civil Rights Courtyard, the Lecture Hall, the Seminar Room 328, 5th Floor Movie Area and the Library Steps must be approved by the Library Dean. To reserve these spaces go to http://lincdoc/lincdoc/doc/run/asu/FRF to complete an online Facilities Request Form at least 4 weeks in advance of the event. The room will not be reserved until final approval of the facility request form. Request should be made no more than 6 weeks in advance of the event. The user must follow the policies and procedures of the LWLC. The Library does not provide cleaning service, please arrange to leave the rooms in the same condition in which they were found prior to usage. Failure to do so may affect future bookings.

The LWLC reserves the right to evaluate whether a proposed activity is consistent with its mission. The LWLC also reserves the right to deny any requests for the use of space based on the nature of the intended activity as it relates to the intended purpose of the space.

Room Description/ Use

Spaces on the first floor can be reserved by students, faculty, staff, and administrators. These spaces lend themselves to culturally based programs, including lectures, symposia, book discussions, workshops, poetry reading and forums. The spaces include: the Civil Rights Courtyard, the Lecture Hall, and the Library Steps.

Other spaces open for programming in the library include academic areas solely designated for the purpose of teaching and learning. These spaces include: faculty development rooms, labs, studios and information commons. Spaces will be made available if all stated procedures are followed. Request for space will be prioritized based on its proposed uses.

Priority for space will be given to activities with an academic focus, activities proposed by University administrators or academic departments, activities proposed by student academic and service organizations. Finally, request from entities outside of the University will be given considerations based on how well the requests corresponds to the LWLC mission, availability and the nature of the activity. Request for recurring events are generally not approved for space reserved in the LWLC.
Reservations
All reservations pertaining to the Civil Rights Courtyard, the Lecture Hall, the Seminar Room 328, the 5th Floor Movie Area and the Library Steps must be approved by the Library Dean. To reserve these spaces go to http://lincdoc/lincdoc/doc/run/asu/FRF to complete an online Facilities Request Form at least 4 weeks in advance of the event. Request should be made no more than 6 weeks in advance of the event.

- The availability of these spaces may be provided prior to submitting a facility request form. However, the room will not be booked/reserved until final approval of the facility request form.
- Groups will not be permitted to hold regularly scheduled meetings unless sponsored or cosponsored by LWLC or National Center staff.
- Upon adequate notice and for adequate reasons, the LWLC reserves the right to revoke permission to use of spaces in the LWLC.

Cancellations
The LWLC requires at least 24 hours notice of a meeting or event cancellation, except in the case of inclement weather. In unforeseen emergencies in which the library has to cancel a meeting, the library will attempt to give the group as much notice as possible.

Responsibility/Liability
Users of this space must comply with LWLC General Policies. The user must take full responsibility for the activity and must adhere to the Library’s policies, rules and procedures. The library will not assume responsibility for security issues or loss of property in connection with the event or those in attendance. Campus organizations must have an advisor present for any function to take place in the LWLC.

Revised April 2016
Recording
Recording of activities including audio, filming, and photographs must be approved by the Library in advance. Recording is restricted to the area where the activity is held.

Media Equipment
All media equipment needs must be requested in advance of the special event.

Food, Drinks, and Alcohol Beverages
No food or drinks are allowed in the Library.

Publicity
Groups may not state nor imply that the Library is sponsoring their meeting or event. Publicity announcing meetings should in no way imply Library sponsorship. Only those activities sponsored by the LWLC will be advertised by the Library.

Registration and Signage
All activities must take place within the assigned area, including registration. Signage or informational materials such as announcements and invitations must be approved by the ASU Publications Department. No tape or adhesive of any kind may be used on the walls or the furniture.

Security
Security for activities is encompassed within the routine duties of the Library’s Security Office to monitor and secure the building and its occupants. No admittance to events other than through the library’s main front entrance unless approved in advance in order to protect the library’s security. Additional security needs and use of outside security persons must be cleared in advance with ASU Department of Public Safety.

Exhibitions
Those requesting to exhibit in the Library must take full responsibility for the materials and persons involved in the installation, display, and removal of the exhibit. The Library provides no assistance in the installation and removal of the exhibit. The Library will not insure the exhibit and has no responsibility or liability for the theft or damage of materials on exhibit or injury of the persons who install and remove the exhibit. Activities such as receptions, media coverage, and exhibit hours must adhere to the same rules, regulations, and procedures as all other activities in the space. Any exceptions must be documented in a written agreement signed by the Dean of the Library and the exhibitor.

Set-up and Clean-up
The Library provides the following equipment to be set-up in the Civil Rights Courtyard and the Lecture Hall: folding chairs, projectors, podium, and microphone. If an alternative set-up is desired the user will be responsible for the physical arrangement of the space. All set up with furniture and equipment in the space must be returned to its original arrangement after an event. No tape or adhesive of any kind may be used on the walls or the furniture.

The user is responsible for cleaning the space at the close of the activity (remove paper, clean table tops, take down signs, and place trash in cans, etc) and advising Library of any damage to or problems with facilities, furnishings or equipment. All reserved spaces/rooms must be left in a clean and orderly condition. Failure to do so may affect future bookings.

Archive Policies

Room Description / Use
Alabama State University (ASU) Archives is open to students, faculty, administrators, staff and the general public. The archives exist to identify and acquire, organize and preserve collections, particularly primary source materials that document the history and the internal operations of ASU. It is also the goal of the Archives to develop and catalog materials that will preserve and make accessible for study, resources relating to the people, aims, strategies, and achievements, of the modern civil rights movement, paying particular attention to those areas where civil rights activism intersects the history of ASU, and in those instances where material connect the local movement to wider civil rights initiatives. Finally, the ASU Archives will collect materials that reflect the cultural expressions of African Americans, particularly the people of Alabama.

• All Visitors
Any patron visiting the Archives should be instructed to review the Archive Regulations located at the Archive Reference Desk and adhere to its directives.

• Researcher Appointments
Persons planning to visit the archives should make an appointment. If the patron indicates the specific material or collections they are interested in, that material should be retrieved and placed in Storage Room 258, the day before the patron arrives.

• Student Visitors
If a person visits the ASU archive and wishes to talk to the archivist or another staff member on matters not related to the archives they should be directed to have a seat in just outside of the archives, and then the archivist or the requested staff member should be informed.

• Researcher
If a researcher visits the archives without an appointment, he or she will be instructed to read archive regulations, show identification and fill out a researcher form. The assistant will familiarize the patron with the archival area and show the patron the archival physical and electronic finding aids. The assistant will then review the request with an archival staff member. If the patron needs to consult with the archival staff person, the assistant will direct the patron to the Viewing and Research Office 256, and then the archivist or another available staff member should be informed.

• Handling Documents
Materials in the archives are valuable and often fragile. Please use the utmost care when handling historic materials.
• Photocopying Documents
  Patrons will not be allowed to copy materials from some archival collections. In these instances an archival assistant will make the copies for the patron. Archival workers will be instructed on how to properly photocopy documents during the fall orientation. Please refer to the archival procedural manual for additional details on how to properly copy archival documents.

• Conduct in the Reference Room
  - Please keep noise in the archival area to a minimum
  - Please refrain from using phones in the reference area
  - The primary focus of the archival area is research, patrons interested in activities other than research, reading, or study should be directed to another part of the library

• Food Policy
  No food and or drink is allowed in the archives
